SILKS AND FINE SILK HOSE GET BURGLAR'S EYE

Thirty dollars worth of silks, silk hose, neckties and other articles of merchandise were taken from the Sa-yu-gua M. Shoten, a Japanese store at 1118 Nuuanu street, owned by Dr. Yonekura, by burglars who gained admittance to the place last night through a second-story window.

The roof of a shed in the rear of the store is near enough to the second story window for a man to pull himself from it to the window sill, and traps left in the dust on the shed indicate that this was the means used to gain entrance. Inside the store the burglar evidently took his time, selecting silk articles which pleased his fancy. Several bolts of silk are among the things missing today.

Another burglar is reported to have tried to obtain admittance to the home of Dr. Hasegawa last night, visiting the place three times, the first time at 8 o'clock, the second at 2 in the morning, and the last time about 3:30, when he was frightened away by one of the neighbors who appeared with a gun.

JAPANESE WILL HOLD SECOND MEETING TO TAKE UP PROTECTION

Thirty men were present at the Japanese mass meeting called last night for the purpose of planning to safeguard Japanese from robberies, which they claim have been too frequent of late. Dr. Negoro presided at the meeting, which was held in the Japanese Association Hall.

It was suggested that rewards be offered for the apprehension of burglars, and Japanese residents were urged to take steps to guard themselves against marauders, and to co-operate with the police.

The members present voted to form a committee called the Japanese Protective committee, which will handle all affairs pertaining to police protection. The committee voted to hold a mass meeting next Sunday evening at the Asahi theater to form further plans for police protection.

WITNESS IN SCANDAL OVER CITY JAIL GOES BACK FOR SIX MONTHS

R. C. Wilcox, alias R. C. Wilcott, pleaded guilty to gross cheat this morning in the police court, and was sent to jail for six months. Wilcox forged a check for $10, signing the name of J. J. Brown and passing the paper on Frank Antonio. The charge of forgery originally preferred against him was reduced to gross cheat today.

Wilcox has served a year in jail before. He is married, and had just obtained a position which would have paid him $21 a week when he passed the $10 check. He was one of the principal witnesses in the jail scandal investigation before the grand jury.

MYSTERIOUS AUTO FOUND TO BELONG TO SCHOFIELD MAN

The mysterious Ford machine found by the police on Nuuanu street Wednesday night was traced through several owners and today found to belong to Cpl. Kennedy, 25th Infantry, Schofield Barracks. The machine was at first thought to be the one used by Korean burglars.

It is thought the automobile was stolen by some young men, who went for a joy ride and then left it standing in the street.

In tracing the machine detectives found that W. A. Rathburn of Kahu-lu, in whose name the machine was registered, sold the auto two months ago to the Castner garage, and the garage sold it to Kennedy.

EVANGELIST TO TALK TO WOMEN ABOUT 'DECOYS'

Special Service Will Be Held in Union Church Sunday Afternoon at 2:45 o'clock

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM.
7:30 p. m.—Service in Central Union church. Address by Evangelist Brown on subject "The Old Hitting Post." Special music, with C. P. Curry, soloist, and leading.

TOMORROW'S PROGRAM.
10:00 a. m.—Practical talk to Christian people by Evangelist Brown in Central Union church. No special subject has been announced.

7:30 p. m.—Service in Central Union church. Address by Evangelist Brown on subject "King David's Rathens." Special music by augmented choir.

A service exclusively for the women of Honolulu and for girls more than 12 years old will be one of Sunday's features of the Brown-Curry evangelistic campaign which has taken Honolulu by storm. The service will be held in Central Union church at 2:45 o'clock in the afternoon, at which time Evangelist John E. Brown will speak on the subject "The Devil's Decoys."

Evangelist Brown today asked the Star-Bulletin to extend a special invitation to the women generally of Honolulu to attend the service. "Assure them," he said, "that while my message will be for women only, and girls under 12 will be excluded, the message as a whole will be on the highest level. While I will deal with subjects which possibly are not ordinarily dealt with before mixed audiences, yet the subjects will be those in which all thinking women have a right to manifest more or less concern."

"I don't expect all women to agree with my viewpoint in considering these vital issues," Evangelist Brown continued, "but I do ask that which every thinking and honest woman ought to be ready to grant, and that is a careful, earnest hearing."

"Ideal Women." Next.
"Later in the campaign, I expect to deliver a second address to women and girls only, and the subject will be 'The Ideal Woman.'"

The first outside service was held this morning when Evangelist Brown and Soloist Curry visited Mills School in the morning. It is estimated that nearly 400 persons attended the service, including the students of Mills School and the Kawahana Seminary.

"I was told that this morning I spoke to persons of 36 different nationalities or combinations of nationalities," said Mr. Brown in discussing the meeting. "I was really astounded at the readiness with which they accepted my message. The topic was 'The Five Deaths.' One thing was evident to me. That was that the student body was more or less familiar with many of the characteristics of the American speech, of which every term I took in my morning talk, whether toward the ridiculous or an effort to touch something of the sublime, there was never a puzzled or a questioning look in any face I caught."

"They laughed heartily at my anecdotes and showed the deepest concern when I discussed some of the fundamentals of the Christian religion. The experience was unique to me and came as an agreeable surprise as well as a revelation. I realize that back of these conditions there are standing capable spiritual leaders who are directly responsible for what I saw or heard."

Morning Prayer Service.
The usual morning services were held in Central Union church at 10 o'clock, and was well attended. It was a service of prayer, and Evangelist Brown delivered an appropriate sermon.

Rev. Amos A. Ebersole, pastor of Central Union church, and one of those who has been hard at work on the business of the campaign, was stopped on the street this morning by a man who said:

"Say, is that man Brown giving you the hell-fire up there?"
"Not any more than he ought to," replied the minister. "Unless some people in this town do different than they are doing, they are going to have some very unhappy experiences some time."

Three big services will be held in Honolulu on Sunday by the visitors. The first will be the service for women and girls in the afternoon. The next will be a rally for young people in the parish house of Central Union at 6:15 o'clock in the evening, at which time Evangelist Brown will speak on the subject, "The Life That Wins." In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the evangelist will speak in Central Union church on the subject, "Unclean Lips."

MORE EVIDENCE CALLED FOR IN 'MUTINY' PROBE

The territorial grand jury yesterday began an investigation of the recent "mutiny" at the Boys' Industrial School at Waihee which resulted in the escape of 54 boys from the institution. After hearing the testimony of a number of witnesses, the tribunal, according to City Attorney Brown, called for more evidence, and this will be presented at a meeting next Thursday afternoon.

It was learned today that the investigation by the grand jury was brought about largely at the instance of the department of public instruction, which already has begun a probe of the causes of the "mutiny." The names of the ringleaders were furnished to Attorney Brown by the department, according to Supt. Henry W. Kinney.

"It is the older boys who have been causing the trouble at the school right along," Mr. Kinney said today. "They are exercising a bad influence over the smaller boys who, without this influence, might be better subject to discipline."

Attorney Brown said today that several of the guards at the school will be summoned as witnesses before the grand jury. Superintendent Tucker will not be called as a witness, he added. Attorney Brown will endeavor to have the 15 ringleaders indicted on charges of unlawful assembly, according to a statement made by him yesterday.

CHRISTMAS PLAYS AT OPERA HOUSE

One of the Christmas plays to be presented by the "Children's Players" at the Opera House on December 21st and 22nd is called "Christmas Gold." It is the story of fuzzy worms, butterflies, beetles, crickets, spiders and fairies, and of little "Lisbeth" who loves them all.

In the opening dialogue between Katrina Kolp and her husband, Myra-heer Kolp, we learn that their little daughter, "Lisbeth" was spirited away by the fuzzy worms, as she lay on the grass watching her papa make a garden, because they wanted revenge on him for killing all of their brother worms.

It is Christmas eve and Mamma Kolp, presented by Mrs. Arthur Smith, is discovered, with a smile on her lips but tears in her heart, trimming a Christmas tree. Papa Kolp (Mr. Alexander Lindsay) discouraged and heavy-hearted, brings bright red candles and red, red apples for the tree, which is hung with presents for Lisbeth's little friends, Peter, Margo and Jan, the little lame boy.

Finally Mamma Kolp brings out Lisbeth's doll, which her papa had carved for her from a bit of wood. This is hung at the top of the tree, with a silent prayer and a cherished hope that Lisbeth will be returned to them this Christmas eve.

When all is quiet, the fuzzy worms, crickets, beetles and spiders appear to discuss the advisability of returning Lisbeth to her home. Just here, a weird and wonderful dance, arranged and directed by Mr. Corrothers and Miss Cunningham, is introduced, in which all of these tiny creatures take part, the crickets furnishing the music. The fun is interrupted by the appearance of the fairy and her two henchmen, whereupon they hide in cracks and corners until they are swept out again to assist in clearing the room. The spiders, always busy, cover the Christmas tree with a wonderful network of threads.

The good fairy, with the help of her henchmen, brings Lisbeth (little Helen Hitchcock) back from the big cocoon, where she has been sleeping, all of this time, thus lighting up the hearts of Mamma and Papa Kolp.

Instantly the room is flooded with light (the real light that each and everyone of us is seeking). The spiders' web, spun round and round the Christmas tree, becomes as gold, and in the joy of the house all is gold, true "Christmas Gold" for Mamma and Papa Kolp and their little Lisbeth!—Advertisement.

MORNING ON 'CHANGE

Olaa 6 per cent bonds have reached a new high level for this year and sold this morning at 95. The stock, too, recovered one-eighth from yesterday's temporary decline which swept the whole list after Wednesday's advance. Trading continues fair in quantity, but price fluctuations are uncertain, and within narrow ranges. The list as a whole is said to have reached a high level never before attained in the history of the Honolulu Stock and Bond Exchange.

MARKET VALUES OF REAL ESTATE MADE AN ISSUE

With a view to ascertaining the market values of the real estate at present owned by the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Company, Charles T. Wilder, tax assessor for the first territorial division, was called as a witness for the petitioners today in the trial of the territory's injunction suit against the Rapid Transit.

The territory introduced in evidence the tax returns filed with the tax assessor by the Rapid Transit annually from 1906 to 1915, which showed the amounts at which the company had returned the value of its real property holdings on December 31 of the preceding years.

Wilder was cross-examined by the company's attorneys regarding the method adopted by the tax office in arriving at their assessment values. He testified that all public utility corporations in the territory, which included the Rapid Transit, were assessed under the law as an enterprise for profit and the total assessed value arrived at by the tax assessor took into consideration not only the tangible properties but the element of earnings, market value of stock and bonds. It was claimed by the territory that such a valuation based on an enterprise for profit would not be a sound basis for the market valuation of real estate or any of the other physical assets of the company.

Cross-examination of Mr. Wilder was to be resumed this afternoon.

TASHIRO TO WED HONOLULU GIRL LATE NEXT WEEK

Professor Shiro Tashiro, who has returned to Hawaii to study the relation between sea water and the human blood, has not completed his investigations as yet, but at intervals the Chicago professor has been studying the relation between the human heart and matrimony. The latter investigation has been completed and on Friday evening, December 9, the noted professor will lead Miss Shizuki Kawasaki, a Honolulu girl, to the altar at the Japanese Methodist church, and the chemist was so much impressed with the young Japanese maiden that he shortened his visit to Japan and hurried back to Honolulu. Miss Kawasaki is a daughter of K. Kawasaki, proprietor of the Kawasaki hotel. As soon as Professor Tashiro has completed his investigation of the sea water here the couple will leave for Chicago, where they will make their home. Professor Tashiro is one of the faculty of the University of Chicago.

Hurrah for Arrival of the Great Northern

At last someone has woken up and put on a direct steamer service between Los Angeles and Honolulu. Over 20 years ago I suggested this service to several businessmen over there and they just laughed and gave me a look-over as much as to say: "Oh, yes, he's crazy, but he is harmless," and here I am over here in Honolulu as a witness to the arrival of the Northern.

Oh, well, someone has to think about these things, but it is generally the case that while one person does the thinking and suggesting the other reaps the benefits. N. E. you who can profit—come from the
